In this connection he stated his opinion that the Nicaraguan canal will prove to be the only practicable isthmian water way, will be of incalculable benefit to our industries, and should be built and managed by the United States government.

DAILY EVENING BULLETIN.

DAILY, EXCEPT SUNDAY.

ROSSER & MCCARTHY,
Proprietors.

SATURDAY EVENING, SEPT. 18, 1886.

JUDON MORTON, of Lexington, is mentioned as a candidate for Governor.

WENSTER County, this State, has voted in favor of prohibition by a majority of 300.

THERE are one hundred and ninety students attending the State College at Lexington.

THE Frankfort centennial next month will be a big thing. Over $2,000 have been contributed to the fund.

THERE isn't a foreign born resident in either Harlan or Leslie Counties, this State. Bell, Breathitt, Letcher, Magoffin, Perry and Wolfe Counties each have but one.

HON. PHIL THOMPSON thinks Cleveland's clean administration will draw the people to the support of the Democratic party. That depends upon whether the people want honest government.

AT Louisville, it is Willis or Caruth for Congress with the Democrats. The contest is being waged vigorously on all sides, and the newspapers are doing all they can to add fuel to the flames.

THE new one-dollar silver certificates are said to be the cleanest-looking and prettiest ever issued by the Government. The easiest way to account for this is found in fact that they were issued by a clean administration—a Democratic administration.

CANDIDATES for Governor are heard of in most every section of the Commonwealth. The Bullitt Pioneer mentions the Hon. Willard Carpenter. It looks as though the Democrats will have a long list from which to make their selection.

JAMES G. BLAINE, Jr., who was quietly married in New York the other day to Miss Nevins, of Ohio, was one of the "boys" when his father was in Congress, and is said to have frequently painted the streets of the Capital a brilliant blue. Jimmie G., Jr., will have to settle down to a quiet life with his beautiful bride now, as the old man has allowed him but $1,800 a year to live on.

THE Vaneburg Courier talks to the point thusly: "Fellow-Democrats, let us all meet in November, have a general picnic, cut off the head of the Republican goose with our hatchet, bury the hatchet, throw the goose over the Garrett Wall into the Kitchen and melt it into burgoo, give the burgoo to the dogs, kill the dogs, send Wall to Congress, Kitchen to the Board of Equalization, the Republican party to the Morgue and the Morgue to the devil."

Comments on the Contest.

The gallant Democracy of the Ninth Kentucky district have hung their banners on the Kitchen-Wall, but they will get there all the same.—Louisville Times.

The untimely Democracy of Johnson County, are sold for Judge Wall and will in November next do their part in redeeming the Ninth Congressional District.—Exchange.

Says the Owsingsville Outlook, which is published at the home of the Hon. S. C. Bacon: "The Augusta convention completed its labors at 2 o'clock Friday morning, the 10th instant, nominating Judge Garrett S. Wall, of Mason County, on the 7th ballot. Although the convention was an exceedingly warm one, the friends of each candidate contesting every point with unrelenting zeal, yet it closed harmoniously. The result is satisfactory to the Democracy of the district, the defeated candidates publicly pledging a warm support to the nominee. Judge Wall, the nominee, is a life-long Democrat, and a gentleman of unquestioned ability and integrity. There is no doubt of his election if the Democrats of the district do their duty."

A great many of our Republican friends hold up their hands in holy horror at the use of money in elections—by Democrats. They say it is demoralizing in the extreme—for Democrats. They say it will ruin the country if persisted in—by Democrats. All of which sounds very nice, but as soon as the champion "hoodler" of Northeastern Kentucky, Geo. M. Thomas, is put up for an office you will find those sticklers for political purity howling themselves hoarse for him, when they know that he never made a race in which his hopes of success were based on anything else than money. He has used more money to corrupt the voters of this section of the State than any ten Democrats in this judicial district. We have heard Republicans go so far as to say they would never vote for a man who would buy votes. Wear going to watch and see how they vote this time.—Flemingburg Times-Democrat.

A STARTLING CONFESSION.

EX-MAYOR BOWMAN'S MURDERER
CONFESSES TO THE CRIME.

The Conscience-Stricken Assassin Says He Was Paid $2,500 for Committing the Crime and Accuses a Railroad Official of Instigating the Tragedy.

ST. LOUIS, Sept. 17.—The story of the assassination of ex-Mayor Bowman, of St. Louis, as revealed by the confessed murderer is not surpassed by any tale of fiction, and if all the statements are substantiated, a sensation that will surpass in local interest the Maxwell-Fuller tragedy will engage the courts on the other side of the river.

Arthur Arthurbush, alias A. L. Pitman, alias Charles Wall, alias Parsons, recently arrested for a trivial offense at Covington, Tenn., has confessed to Sheriff Carter, of that county, that he murdered the late Mayor Bowman, of East St. Louis, on the 24th of last November. The sheriff has sent the confession to the East St. Louis authorities, and it is in substance as follows:

"During the early part of November, 1885, I was visiting in East St. Louis, and while walking in the outskirts of the town about dusk one evening I was approached by a well dressed man of pleasing manners, who stopped and conversed with me. After a while he asked me if I wanted to make some money. I told him yes. I was pretty hard on my feet and ready to do anything. He said there was a man in East St. Louis who he wanted put out of the way.

"I told him I was a man and I could make arrangements to kidnap his victim. He said he didn't want him kidnapped, but put out of the way. I said I would murder the man for $5,000. If I was going to be hanged at all I wanted to sell myself for a decent amount. I didn't intend to commit murder, however. I meant to kidnap the man and keep him in an asylum. By this means I could extort money from my captive and my principal at the same time. I made an appointment to meet him again, and at the second interview I learned that my employer was a vice president of a railroad company and a resident of St. Louis. The final arrangements were then made and I then agreed to do the job for $2,500. I started immediately for New York and there made arrangements with 'Dandy Jim' and 'Striped Charley' Blake to assist me.

"On the 15th of November I went back to East St. Louis and there completed the details of my scheme. I bought a building revolver, a five shooter of .45-caliber, and two long hunting knives. I didn't intend, I want it understood, to murder Mr. Bowman, but only kidnap him. I intended to defend myself if he should resist my attempt to kidnap him. That evening I met the railroad vice president by appointment, and while we were talking together Mr. Bowman passed by. 'There is the man,' said my companion, 'I want you to put out of the way.' He gave me his photograph so that I could make no mistake.

"On the next night my plans were complete except that my accomplices had not yet arrived. I stationed a hack near Mr. Bowman's house, in which it was my intention to drive him to an asylum, where I had made arrangements for his confinement. I then concealed myself near a lumber pile in front of Mr. Bowman's house and waited.

"I soon perceived the gentleman walking in directly toward me. He came opposite me I sprang out in front of him, presented my pistol before his face and commanded him to halt. He seized my hand and I told him to let go, that I was not going to kill him or take his money. He dropped my hand and stepped away a foot or two and called 'police!' In order to quiet him I raised my revolver and fired. He fell face downward and I then knew that I had hurt him worse than I had intended.

"I did not even then comprehend that I had killed him. I only intended to disable him, place him in the carriage and take him to the asylum. I walked up to his body and found that he was dead, and I immediately started to escape. I had gone but a short distance when I met my employer, who then paid me my money and we went to his house in St. Louis and spent the remainder of the night. Early in the morning, disguised as a woman, I took the first train for Springfield, Ill."

The confession then details his travels through the south and his final arrival at Covington, Tenn., where he subsequently arrived. He states that he makes the confession voluntarily, simply because of a guilty conscience. He knows his employer's name, his place of residence, and he admits that if he should ever see him again. He refuses to disclose the vice president's name, but promises to do so when the proper time shall arrive.

The man gives further and fuller details of the crime, but the officials emphatically refuse to make them public or allow the man to be interviewed.

Engineer and Fireman Injured.

VAN WERT, O., Sept. 18.—A freight train on the Cincinnati, Jackson & Michigan railway ran into some cattle on the track twelve miles north of this place, and the entire train was derailed. Engineer James Attie was caught by timber loaded on the car next to the engine and badly crushed, causing his bowels to protrude. Fireman James Graves sustained severe but not fatal injuries. Both injured men were brought here, where they reside.

Methodist Conference at Alliance.

ALLIANCE, O., Sept. 18.—The East Ohio conference of the M. E. church convened here for its eleventh session. Bishop C. D. Jones, of Michigan, presided. Rev. R. R. Keys, of Kent, was elected secretary, and Rev. W. H. Haskell, of St. Clairsville, statistical secretary. One hundred and seventy members answered to the roll call out of 250. The conference will remain in session about one week.

Dragged to Death.

ANDERSON, Ind., Sept. 18.—A twelve-year-old son of Len Thomas met with a frightful death on his father's farm, near Funk's station, six miles north of the city. While rolling ground with a heavy roller a coil attached thereto became entangled in the harness, and while trying to disengage the animal Thomas became fastened in the rigging and was dragged to death.

Stigmata Reported.

CHARLESTON, S. C., Sept. 18.—A passenger from Summerville reports a slight shock there about 9 o'clock last night, and another about midnight. The disturbance was very slight, however, and neither shock was felt in this city.

LONDON, Sept. 18.—The authorities of the city of London contemplate presenting the freedom of the city to Prince Alexander.

An exchange says: "Kentucky Conference of the M. E. Church, South, at its recent session at Winchester, resolved that the members of the conference should not serve camp meetings where the Sabbath is desecrated by ordinary business or by running excursion trains, nor should they assist in the conduct of such meetings where the gates are opened on the Sabbath. This action, if enforced, will seriously interfere with those business-like enterprises which have sprung up of late years under the name of camp meetings."

The libel suit of D. S. Nixon against A. L. Wright, at Owingville, for $20,000 damages, resulted in a verdict for the defendant. Nixon was a candidate for Jailor of Bath County at the last August election, and claimed that he was defeated by libelous charges made by Wright.

A suit was tried in the Quarterly Court this week that is destined to become famous. The action was brought several months ago to recover the value of eleven turkeys—$11. The parties in the suit are both well-to-do farmers, and being determined fellows, are not likely to come to any compromise. The suit was tried twice in the lower courts and we believe resulted in a hung jury each time. The trial this week in the Quarterly Court resulted likewise. The costs of each party amount, probably, to double or treble the value in controversy, and the end is not yet.

The steamer Handy No. 2 has been chartered to a party at Louisville who will place her in the trade between that city and Cannellton. She will go to Vanceburg to-day, and will leave there to-night for her new field. Captain Bruce Redden will continue to preside in the office while she remains in that trade, and the public will find him one of the most pleasant and affable gentlemen in the business. It will not take the people of the lower Ohio very long to become aware of the fact that the Handy No. 2 is one of the swiftest and most comfortable steamers on the river. The C. A. Hill, an upper Ohio craft, has been chartered and will take the place of the Handy in the trade between this city and Vanceburg.

"Many Citizens" (I).

Editor Bulletin: My attention was called to an item headed something like the above. It is true, the ordinance referred to has not been repealed, but I would like to ask the Mayor a question: Where shall the poor man put his ashes if not in the street? The "many citizens" (the rich) can afford to have the ashes, handled away. But it is ever thus: the poor are made to suffer because the head officers provide no means for the disposal of the garbage. Time rolls around, and it may be that the "Hon." will be re-elected by the "many citizens," and we may look for the needed improvement. Maybe and maybe not.
